PAIN MEDS

We strongly recommend using take-home pain medication after surgery to avoid unnecessary suffering. Select one of the following (required):

- Please dispense pain medication. Our doctors usually prescribe Rimadyl, but other drugs may be used depending on conditions specific to the patient. The costs for Rimadyl range from $11-17 for dogs 60 lbs. and under and $17-26 for dogs over 60 lbs.
- I do not want pain medication dispensed. I understand that without drugs to provide relief patients may experience significant pain following surgery. Initial here:

Optional Add-Ons

<input type="checkbox"/> Please perform pre-anesthetic blood work (CBC & Brief Chemistry Panel). Cost: $55.54 These diagnostics help screen for the presence of conditions or diseases that may complicate anesthesia. They can also help detect conditions and diseases while they are in their early stages, before the patient has begun showing obvious signs. Catching these issues early on can allow for more effective treatment.	<input type="checkbox"/> I decline pre-anesthetic blood work.
<input type="checkbox"/> Please use surgical laser instead of scalpel for this procedure. Cost: $37.00 Laser surgery seals nerve endings (decreasing post-operative pain), cauterizes blood vessels (reducing bleeding), reduces inflammation at the surgery site, and lowers the risk of infection.	<input type="checkbox"/> I decline use of surgical laser.
<input type="checkbox"/> Please update my pet's vaccinations as needed (subject to doctor discretion). Cost varies.	<input type="checkbox"/> I decline vaccinations.
<input type="checkbox"/> Please implant an AKC Reunite microchip while my pet is in the hospital. Cost: $22.50 The cost shown here does not include optional registration with the microchip's manufacturer. Lifetime registration can be purchased from the manufacturer for $17.50 online or $19.95 if mailed in. Free third-party registries are also available but do not typically offer 24/7 telephone support for lost and found pets.	<input type="checkbox"/> I decline microchip implantation.
